Event Description

This is a procurement for the Tennessee Department of Correction (TDOC), Northeast Correctional Complex (NECX) Carter County Annex (CCX) for the provision of cleaning the wastewater treatment tank and associated lines to include the disposal of all materials from the system. System must be cleaned and sanitized due to the closure of the Carter County Annex. This is a one-time service and must be completed within established environmental and safety guidelines for the removal and disposal of sewage and related materials. Further information can be found in the specifications attached to the procurement event.
